

Grand President Donates to Phrabatnampu Temple

Many businesses and individuals dedicated their time, energy and money to help the HIV and AIDS sufferers. Grand President led by General Manager, Nathalie Burtin donated towels, blankets, bed sheets, pillow cases, curtains and clothing to Phrabatnampu Temple at Lopburi province. The staff of Grand President also collected a small amount of cash to be donated to the temple as well.

Phrabatnampu Temple provides free shelter, food, medicine, clothing and other basic necessities to HIV-positive children and orphans with AIDS who were abandoned by their families. The temple also works with medical professionals and volunteers to provide physical and emotional care and help them live a normal life.
