

News Briefs

Big Bikes Roar into Grand President

Leather-clad and tattoo-emblazoned bikers roared their huge bikes at Grand President, Bangkok. More than 40 bikers from Malaysia took a night rest at the vibrant City of Angles before continuing their trip to Chiang Mai to attend the annual Chiang Mai Bike Week 2009.

Thousand of bikers from all over attend the event every year to celebrate the King's Birthday as well as do their bit for Charity to the children in Doi Pha Nok Kok School. The event also includes an exhibition of big bikes from Harley Davidson to Honda, Yamaha, Kawasaki, Suzuki and many more.